Intercultural Community Builders

Our Vision

Intercultural Community Builders (ICB) is a non-profit organization committed to building communities where people from all cultural backgrounds feel welcomed and included and are encouraged, supported, and empowered to reach their full potential.

Intercultural Community Builders

ICB Goals

1. Provide intercultural skill building and prejudice reduction workshops to -
 - Help participants become more effective and successful in working with culturally diverse students and clients.
 - Help youth and adults become more skillful and successful in working within school, agency, and other mainstream system cultures.
2. Collaborate with other non-profit organizations, schools, and government agencies to organize workshops in their communities.
3. Provide intercultural skill building workshops at a minimal, affordable cost to participants.

Become an ICB Supporter

Your donations to ICB are used to provide sponsorships that pay workshop registration fees for youth and adults who need financial assistance and for basic operating expenses. All donations are tax-deductible.

Your donation will help ICB build kinder communities where all people feel welcomed and included.

ICB Workshops

ICB workshops are conducted by culturally diverse, certified facilitators. Workshops include a Power-Point visual presentation, interactive activities, and participant workbooks. Workshops can be developed to meet the specific needs of your school or agency.

ICB Workshop Titles:

- Be Kind—Be a PAL Workshop for Grades 4-6
- Find Your Voice-Take a Stand Anti-Bullying Workshop for Middle School students
- Intercultural Leadership Skills for Teens
- Mentoring Culturally Diverse Youth
- Working with Culturally Diverse Families
- Parenting for Academic Success
- Facilitator Certification: PAS—Parenting for Academic Success
- Facilitator Certification: Intercultural Leadership Skills for Teens

Teen Vision Statement

I vow to use my kindness, creativity, and intelligence to grow, lead, and empower others to spark a revolution against hatred and intolerance; leaving a mark and changing the world.

- Hannah Weaver, Colorado Early College

Intercultural Leadership Skills for Teens

This workshop teaches youth strategies that promote positive intercultural interactions.

Workshop Objectives:

- Teens will increase their appreciation of their own culture.
- Teens will improve their ability to work with and appreciate people from other cultures.
- Teens will learn strategies for reducing the impact of prejudice, oppression, and bullying.
- Teens will develop leadership skills to assist them in promoting positive intercultural relationships in their schools and communities.

This workshop is something that I have done for the past 4 years of my life, and it really helps me to make the right decisions culturally and ethically. This program has made me proud of who I am and proud of my ethnic group and culture.
